JLC LEARNED THE IMPORTANCE OF THEIR DIGITAL TATTOO & ONLINE REPUTATION

Our JLC Class met for their November session at The Tuckey Companies in Carlisle who were kind enough to host the students for the day. They started out with an ice breaker activity and then George Book, Jr. presented on Steven Covey's Habit 2: Begin With The End In Mind.

The main portion of the day was presented by Donovin Lindsay of Colledge Knowledge on LinkedIn in two parts and Anne Deeter Gallaher of Deeter Gallaher Group LLC on "Your Digital Tattoo". They taught the students to manage their online reputation, learn how to use LinkedIn to their advantage, and create a digital tattoo they can be proud of.

To finish out the day, the Tuckey Companies talked to the students about communication and had them complete a building project with spaghetti. Then Harrisburg University of Science and Technology spoke to the students about program options. The students had a great day and are looking forward to their December session!

FELLOWS LEARNED THE IMPORTANCE OF BEING AUTHENTIC & PRESENT

Our fellows class met for their November session at Volvo Construction Equipment in Shippensburg and their Director of HR, Andy Williford welcomed the group and shared about their organization. A class group then presented on the curriculum topic of Authenticity. They highlighted the effect of authenticity on leadership and communities and took inventory of their four rooms of Authenticity.

Brianna Campbell then went through part two of her presentation on Strengths Finders with the fellows before they broke for lunch! Dr. Ivy R. Buchan of Helix Strategies, LLC also returned to the class to finish her presentation on Nonprofit Board Governance with Marcellus Charles Taylor of Partnership for Better Health presenting on Belonging to finish out the day. Overall the class had a great session and are looking forward to their last session of 2023 in December!

HONORING DEAN DANIELLE M. CONWAY
PENN STATE DICKINSON LAW

SPONSORED BY:

JANUARY 30, 2024 | 11:30 AM - 1:30 PM | CARLISLE COUNTRY CLUB

Join us for our upcoming Leaders at Lunch program where we will be honoring Danielle M. Conway, Dean and Donald J. Farage Professor of Law at Penn State Dickinson Law for her work in creating Dickinson Law's Antiracist Development Institute. It was created to facilitate the dismantling of structures that scaffold systemic racial inequality by implementing antiracist practices, processes and policies throughout organizations.

In addition to her DEI work in creating the Institute, Dean Conway was instrumental in guiding Penn State Dickinson Law's development of a civil rights, equal protection and social justice certificate program; developing a required first-year course on "Race and the Equal Protection of the Laws"; and establishing the Law Deans Antiracist Clearinghouse Project. We honor Dean Conway for her work in creating these Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Programs in Central Pennsylvania.
